Y. W. C. T. U. Notes.

More than thirty of the mining companies of Colorado make total abstinence a condition of employment.

All the saloons of Lawrence, Kansas, have closed permanently, thirty saloon keepers, all that were in Wichita, Kan., have gone out of business. The prohibition movement is gaining in strength constantly. In Topeka a late election shuts up the lawless saloons.

President Cotter read the following estimates: "The British spend annually about $700,000,000 in drink, an average of $19 for each Englishman. Germany has 11,800 breweries, which turn out 845,000,000 gallons of beer. America spends $900,000,000 for rum and tobacco. The money wasted for drink in Germany, England, and America, would buy all the bread and meat consumed by the three nations. This awful burden compels twice the amount of labor in the world. This drink burden makes two-thirds of our sickness and three-fourths of our crime."

They do say that Mrs. Carlisle, is now the Lucy Hayes of Washington and that last season she disgusted to the point of "coolness" such a Kentucky friend, with whom she was to receive New Year's calls, and who insisted on "Punch" as a feature of the entertainment. The Lord bless and keep her. (U. S.)

In Carrollton, Georgia, the sale of liquor was prohibited five years ago and the amount of trade has increased from $200,000 to $500,000 and there is not one merchant in thirty who would not vote against the reinstatement of the traffic on purely business principles. Georgia has 84 counties where whisky can not be had except in some form of the larger towns.

Maine amends Iowa's happy thought so as to read a school-house on every hill-top, and in every valley, and no saloon anywhere. Hurrah for plucky Maine.

A liquor dealer received a note, you are invited to attend the funeral of a man you have been ten years killing.

Antioch.

Thos. Hunter closed his school in the Lewis district last Friday, the 6th.

Mrs. Noah Gains left last Saturday for Louisville on a visit to her sister.

The Sunday-school will reopen at Antioch to-morrow week at 3 p. m.

Mr. Robt. Owens, after a protracted visit to Louisville, has returned home.

Mrs. Mattie McQueen, of Lexington, is visiting her mother, Mrs. America Lewis.

Mrs. Joe Roberts and daughter Annie, were quite sick the latter part of last week.

Mich. LeCompte went to see his girl last Sunday and returned looking very sad. She had the measles.

Crit Semones, of Tucker's Branch, was the guest of his uncle, John W. Semones, last Saturday night.

Mrs. Tinsley returned home last Sunday after a three days' visit to relatives in Tiger neighborhood.

Jack Crutched left last Tuesday week for Tennessee. Don't cry L., he'll come back. But isn't Sam glad he is gone.

Dan Moore went to Owen to work the remainder of the year. After putting in three days he returned home. Says it was too loose down there for him.

More measles. Four new cases at Mr. Walker Lewis', viz Mrs. Lewis, Miss Lou, and Doc and Robt. Lewis. Also one case at Mr. James Glor's, his son George.

Died. At the residence of her father, Geo. Rauch, on Monday the 23th of May, Mrs. Lucy Brown, of consumption. She was buried at Antioch Tuesday, the 27th.

We must apologize for the mistake made in our last letter, in regard to preaching at Antioch last Sunday, as we were misinformed in regard to the matter, and are sorry so many were disappointed. Bro. William Smith will preach there the fourth, and Elder Polk South the fifth Sunday in June.

Clipper was over last week on a fishing frolic, and he caught some nice ones, too. We know where to expect him at some of them; but he caught the boss fish on Wednesday, and we really thought at one time we would have to send for Jumbo to help carry him home, and to set up with Clipper that night. He had put his fish in a spring about 150 yards from the house and he paid it about 4 or 5 visits before supper and bed-time. Last time he carried a pile of boards that would have been a load for Jumbo, and covered the spring over, then he packed rocks and put on the boards, and when he had it safe the coxes, coxes and fust. Come again, Clipper.

Editor Roundabout:

Your issue of the 24th contains an article about elections, which should awaken an interest and touch a responsive chord in the heart of every good citizen of the county. At the primary election held here for sheriff on the 17th an example well worthy of imitation by the county, State and Nation, was set by Messrs. M. B. Lucas and R. F. Suter, and the good, moral people of this community will ever hold them in grateful remembrance for this noble and manly conduct. Before the polls were opened they met and agreed to send every jug out of the place and not to use a dollar of money, a drop of whisky or say a word to a voter, to influence the casting of a vote. Like true men they stood to their agreement, and although it took a wagon to haul the whisky in readiness, out of the village, not a drunken man was seen, not a profane or boisterous word was heard in the village, save and except a few snarled curses and anathemas from the disappointed and out-spoken rabble and flouters. No man of even quasi respectability had the effrontery to criticize their course for fear of being classed with the mud sellers. On the other hand their praise was proclaimed by the tongue of every upright, moral and respectable man and woman in the entire community. Here where riot, bloodshed and strife were confidently expected there was held an exceptionally quiet, orderly, and peaceable election. Why cannot this be done all over this county in all future time, and this reform Frankfort county from the charge of foul corruption, which she has so long and so seriously borne? If the good men of this county, office seekers, voters, and non-partisans would but so determine the result is already accomplished, and there will be a political millennium in the county. The result of the last election proves that this end can be easily attained. All good, solid men, who were entitled to vote, with exceptions of course for absentees, voted here and that election, more to the point, drank whisky and sell their progeny, incensed by disappointment refused to vote, thus unconsciously drawing a marked and distinct line between one and the other. The number on the black list, although drawn gracefully and shamefully large, are yet in such a minority that their voices at the polls could be dispensed with without detriment to the public weal. And just here, Mr. Editor, let me close this article, already too long, by saying to gentlemen of the other side in the county who have been habitually throwing dirt at Peak's Mill, "Go thou and do likewise," or forever after hold your peace. There is more good to result from the proper regulation of this question than from any other now claiming public attention. "The tariff for revenue only" not excepted; and when it becomes generally known that the good moral men all over this county have fully determined, as many of them in this community have publicly declared, that they will support no man for office who will use money, whisky, or other disreputable agencies in electioneering, then will an effective check have been placed upon this mighty current, so pregnant with evil, ruin and disgrace. You are on the right track. Keep up the fight and the moral community will support and sustain you.

We heard a gentleman remark a few days ago, that after having made a race for an office in this county he went into the Court house on the first day of the next term of the Circuit Court and found upon the grand jury three men whose votes he had bought but a few weeks before. Of course there were no indictments found at that term of Court for bribery or illegal voting, and so it is at nearly every term.

A Call.

The Republican voters of the city of Frankfort are requested to meet in convention at the Court House on Saturday, June 21, at 10 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for City Marshal.

E. M. DRANE,

Chairman Republican Committee.

Notice to Teachers.

At a preliminary meeting of the teachers of Franklin county, held at the office of Thomas B. Ford in Frankfort, Ky., on Saturday, May 10th, 1884, the following resolution was adopted: That the teachers of Franklin county are earnestly requested to meet at the same place on Saturday, June 21st, 1884, for the purpose of organizing a County Teachers Association. The teachers are all earnestly requested to be present at 10 o'clock a. m.

JNO. S. HARRISON, Com'r.
C. H. PARMENT,
T. HUNTER,
LIZZIE STIVERS.

Monday, June 10th, being Flower Mission day, all private, church-houses, and reformatories will be visited and a few bright flowers, with appropriate scripture text attached, will be given each inmate of such institutions all over the land. The ladies having charge of the work here, earnestly request contributions of flowers and delicacies for the sick on that day. Send them to the Chapel of the Christian Church. Many mourning nests, at night, the custom is very beautiful and will send a gleam of sunshine into many saddened hearts. "Blessed be the man that provideth for the sick and needy, the Lord shall deliver him in the time of trouble."

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS.
Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, JUNE 7, 1884.

Col. R. P. Pepper's trotters, Code and Catchy, are at the Chicago races this week. The former trotted yesterday and the latter will start this afternoon.

Miss Rosalie Pollard, daughter of the late J. D. Pollard, died at the residence of her mother, 430 Broadway, on Wednesday, after an illness of several months with consumption. The funeral took place Thursday morning from the family residence.

Tom Buford, the murderer of Judge Elliott, left Jeffersonville, Indiana, Thursday, and returned to the Lunatic Asylum at Anchorage. He was without money and clothing and it is thought he cannot live many weeks as he has been suffering for some time with chronic diarrhea.

Mr. Torbett Coryell, of Lambertville, New Jersey, and Miss Lizzie Welch, of this city, were married at the Episcopal Church at noon Tuesday. Rev. E. A. Penick, assisted by Rev. G. H. McCready of Versailles, officiating. The bridal party left on the 2:27 p. m. train for their future home in New Jersey.

Mr. Gran, Alexander died suddenly on Tuesday at Bridgeport, of heart disease, aged 75 years. The deceased was well known in this county, having lived for many years at Bridgeport. A few years since he removed to this city, and has been employed by the city as lighter of the street lamps on the South Side, for the past two years. He was a quiet, good citizen, and had the respect of all who knew him.

The game of Base Ball Saturday afternoon between the Mt. Eden Club, of Spencer county, and the White Hall Club, of this city was one of the prettiest and best contested games ever played in this city up to the seventh inning. The score up to that time stood 3 to 3, when Jas. Buttiner, pitcher for the home club wore all the skin off one of his fingers and was unable to control the ball and the visitors got on to his delivery and ran up the score to 9 to 3. The visitors are the strongest amateur organization in the State and our boys feel proud of their game although they were defeated.

A candidate for one of the offices to be filled at the August election met one of our good looking young Irishmen a few days since and accosted him with "Hello Mike." "My name is not Mike," was the reply. "Ah, how do you do, Mr. Sullivan," said the candidate. "Well my name is not Sullivan either," replied the young man. "Oh well I am a candidate for ——— and would like for you to help me at the August election," continued the aspirant for office. "But I am for the other man," said the voter as he walked off, leaving the would be officer somewhat crestfallen.

The Courier-Journal of Monday, published, under flaming headlines, an article charging Rev. J. B. Tharp, superintendent of the Masonic Widows and Orphans Home in this city, with incompetency and cruelty to the children under his charge. On Tuesday it published under a very modest caption a denial of the truth of the charges by the President of the Board of Directors of the Home. To those who know Mr. Tharp in this city, where he has made his home for years, it was unnecessary for any one to say that there was not a word of truth in the statement. He has a hard position to fill, and it is hardly to be expected that, if he does his duty, as he certainly will to the best of his ability, he will please everyone. There are those in every community who are ever ready to find fault and distort everything they hear and it seems that one of these busy-bodies has stirred up the trouble in this case. Having been a pupil of Mr. Tharp for several years, we can bear testimony that if there is a boy in the Home who has made up his mind to do as he pleases he will make him toe the mark and behave as he should, but he will treat no one cruelly.

Mrs. Gen. Roger W. Hanson went into office Monday morning as State Librarian.

Messrs. Jno. Cochran & Co. Spring Hill Distillery will stop nashing on Wednesday next.

Rev. Dr. G. W. Bryant has succeeded Rev. J. W. Ashbury as pastor of St. John's A. M. E. Church in this city.

The meeting at the Southern Presbyterian Church still continues. There have been 6 additions to the Church so far.

The Hermitage Distillery will make the last mash of the season on Tuesday, and will close operations on Saturday next.

Messrs. E. Bueckhardt & Co. will open out their meat store on Broadway in Mrs. Callaghan's building this morning with a full supply of meats of all kinds.

The colored Public School was closed for the year on Friday of last week. The closing exercises took place in the First Colored Baptist Church and were largely attended.

Mr. James M. Todd had on exhibition, at his grocery on Main street Saturday, the first peach of the season. It was sent to him from Louisville and was grown in Alabama.

Mr. W. C. Herndon is announced in another column as a candidate for City Attorney. There is no more competent or worthy young gentleman in the city, and if elected he will be a faithful officer.

When a person goes to church and a young lady comes and sits in front of him with one of the sun hats so fashionable now on her head, he feels very much as if an umbrella had been hoisted between him and the minister.

Our friend Col. Dave Moore has announced himself as a candidate for the office of Jailor. The other candidates will have to be right lively for Dave is a popular man and will make it hot for them in the race if they get away with him.

We are glad to be able to state that Mr. Noah Goins will make the canvass for the Democratic nomination for Jailor, without the use of money or whisky. Now let the other candidates make the same statement and stick to it.

Rev. Benjamin B. Smith, Bishop of Kentucky, formerly of this city, died at his home in New York City, Saturday morning, aged 90 years. The remains were brought to this city and interred in the Cemetery yesterday.

County Court brought a large crowd to town Monday and the sales on the street were lively. The patent medicine men were out in force and, for the small sum of a quarter, medicine that will cure all the ills flesh is heir to could be had on almost any corner.

The Southern Presbyterian Church was organized in South Frankfort Friday afternoon of last week with about forty members. Messrs. Peter Jett, Jos. Robison and Thos. G. Poore were elected elders and Mr. S. T. Fortune deacon. The Church was dedicated Sunday morning. A Sunday-school has been organized with Mr. Thos. G. Poore as Superintendent.

Why cannot the law allowing the citizens of Frankfort the privilege of converting the State House yard into a park be taken advantage of? It would be an ornament to the city as well as of great benefit to our citizens. Bowling Green has a park about as large as the front portion of the Capitol grounds, which is lighted with gas, provided with seats, with a beautiful fountain in the centre, which is the pride of that little city, and is a source of great pleasure to her citizens. Won't some public spirited individual take the lead and work up the matter? The cool shade there is very inviting and the yard should be cut up into walks so that it can be enjoyed. Let us have a park by all means.

The Cincinnati Exposition will begin this year on the 3d of September and close on the 4th of October.

A military company has been organized in Georgetown which is called the Owens Guards, in honor of Hon. W. C. Owens.

The commencement exercises took place Thursday at the Kentucky Military Institute. There were several graduates.

Rev. George Darsie, of this city, delivered the annual address before the pupils of Madison Female Seminary, at Richmond, Wednesday.

The young ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will hold a reception at the residence of Mrs. M. J. Gaines Wednesday evening from 7 until 10 o'clock. Everybody invited.

The registration of votes for the city election in August was concluded Wednesday and the vote promises to be much larger than at the election for Councilmen in December a year ago.

Mr. H. M. Winslow, of Carrollton, a young gentleman well known in this city, was married in Shelbyville Wednesday to Miss Lucy Cooper, daughter of John C. Cooper, Esq., of that place.

A party of eight or ten couples of young ladies and gentlemen went out Wednesday to the lake of the Capital Fishing Club, on Mr. R. K. Woodson's place, on a picnicking and fishing excursion.

Mr. Frank Heeney has rented the store-room in the Reading block, 311 Broadway, formerly occupied by Mr. C. Finck, and will open a fancy store there in a short time. We hope the boys will all remember "Charlie."

A very pleasant party was given by the Misses Holmes, at 508 west Main, on Monday evening in honor of Miss Josie Glynn and Jennie Howard, of Louisville. About twenty couples of young people were in attendance.

Our correspondents will greatly oblige us by attaching their names to their letters, as there are many who are unknown to us personally, and we cannot remember all who are kind enough to write from the remote portions of the county.

The admiralty case of Capt. John W. Cannon vs. the steamer Chas. Morgan, for damages to Capt. Cannon's boat by a collision, near New Orleans, was decided in the United States Court in Louisville Tuesday in favor of the plaintiff, by which Capt. Cannon's heirs will get $11,000 damages.

Dr. Clement B. Chinn and Miss Jennie Markham were married at the Baptist Church in this city Wednesday afternoon at one o'clock, by Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis. The Church was darkened and beautifully decorated with flowers. The happy couple left on the 2:27 p. m. train for a bridal trip to Niagara Falls, Boston and New York.

Mr. John T. Buckley is agent in this city for the sale of a new iron roofing, which is just the thing for covering tobacco houses. He is prepared to put it on promptly and securely, and at very reasonable prices. Farmers who are turning their attention to raising tobacco should call and see him before they purchase shingles for their barns.

An excursion train will be run between this city and Lexington next Sunday.

The sale of daily papers has been unusually large in this city this week on account of the National Republican Convention being in session at Chicago.

The National Convention at Chicago has been the all absorbing topic this week. The window at the Telegraph office has been closely watched for bulletins, and the posting of any new information has been the signal for the gathering of quite a crowd.

The commencement exercises of Eminence College took place Wednesday and the usual entertainment Thursday, and both were as interesting as all such occasions at this excellent institution of learning always are. There were three graduates—two young gentlemen and one young lady.

The city tax-book for 1884 has been placed in the hands of Mr. W. T. Runyan, City Treasurer, for the payment of taxes and will remain until the 31st of July, when it will be withdrawn and all unpaid taxes listed with the City Marshal for collection. If you wish to save ten per cent. on your taxes call around and settle up.

Mr. Jas. A. Violet is announced in this issue as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Attorney. He has made one of the best officers the county has ever had and deserves an endorsement. He requests us to say that he hopes he will not be forced, this far in advance, to neglect the duties of his office for the purpose of making a canvass, and hopes that his friends throughout the county will remember that he is on the track to stay.

The White Hall Base Ball Club, of this city, went to Lexington Tuesday to play the professional club of that city. The Lexington Transcript gives the following report of the game:

Only a small crowd witnessed the game between the Lexingtons and Frankforts yesterday. The game was quite interesting from the first to the last inning, and well merited a larger attendance. The Lexingtons were in perfect trim and played a faultless game, with but one exception, the error being a bad throw of the first baseman to the third, allowing the Frankforts thereby to make their only run.

The first and second innings the Lexingtons and Frankforts scored goose eggs.

Third Inning Lexington scored three runs by bad playing of the Frankforts, and the Frankforts in their turn scored nothing.

Fourth Inning the Lexingtons made one of the Frankforts, none. F. Buttner, of the Frankforts captured a hot liner on second, and was loudly applauded.

Fifth Inning the Lexingtons none; Frankforts one.

Sixth Inning the pitcher of the Lexington nine made his only three-base stroke during the game. The Frankforts lead off by F. Buttner making a right fielder over the fence, but he only reached the second base, being followed by weak batters.

Seventh and eighth Innings both nines scored goose eggs, and the ninth Inning Lexingtons scored three and Frankforts nothing.

THE SCORE.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9

Lexingtons.....0 0 3 1 0 2 0 0 3-9

NOTES.

Henry White makes a good umpire—Goodloe Hammond, as a catcher, was a success.

There was only four ladies in attendance. Why is this thusly?
